Camp Food

Eating properly is an important part of a great camp experience. Good nutrition combined with great tasting food makes a happy camper! Meals are family-style in Hope Lodge with at least one staff member at each table.

Our menu is full of camper friendly items. Here is an example of what a daily menu might look like:

- Breakfast: Scrambled eggs, sausage links, hash browns, grapes and milk (2% and whole milk option)
- Lunch: Chicken nuggets, tater tots, applesauce, and milk or juice option.
- Dinner: Spaghetti with veggie sauce, garlic toast, and milk or juice option.

Every day at breakfast, in addition to our hot meals, we offer cold cereals and toast. At lunch and dinner sandwiches are always an alternative to the main course being served. Salads can also be made available for lunch and dinner upon request.

Food Accommodations

We are experienced at accommodating special food needs in an inclusive way. We offer food options that match the main meal for all campers whenever possible. If your camper has food restrictions or allergies, please note that in the CampDoc profile. Additionally, if your camper has a medical or religious restriction make sure to also include that information in the CampDoc profile.

Don't Send Snacks

Please do not send snacks or candy to camp. Snacks and candy attract wildlife. Our Food Service Manager arranges for healthy, tasty snacks for the campers. If a camper becomes hungry between meals, there are always snacks available at Hope Lodge. Your camper just needs to tell the counselors and they will be more than happy to get a snack as soon as possible.

Adjusting to Camp

Homesickness may occur when a camper is separated from their normal support system. It is quite natural for children to miss home when they are away, particularly during meals and at bedtime. In fact, learning how to handle separation is an appropriate developmental task. The feeling usually passes in a day or two, and the camper enjoys the rest of the session, for they have made new friends and have gotten more involved in camp activities.

Parents and guardians may receive a sad, lonesome, and tearful first letter from their camper. We encourage you to call the Camp Director if you receive one and are concerned. Your encouraging attitude before and during camp will help prevent homesickness. Family and friends from home are encouraged to write short, cheerful letters (see Contacting Your Camper section). Each camper handles homesickness differently. The counselors are trained to work with each camper to find what will help.

Here are some hints to help prepare your camper for their stay:

- Discuss what camp will be like prior to your camper leaving. If you're learning about camp for the first time, take advantage of our knowledgeable staff. We are happy to talk to you and your camper prior to camp.
- Pack a personal comforting item from home, such as a stuffed animal.

If you receive a call, offer calm reassurance and put the time frame into perspective. This type of call is not common but occurs when a camper does not respond to the staff's attempts to help them adjust, make friends, or enjoy being at camp. You will be contacted by the Camp Director to schedule this call and discuss the situation prior to talking to your camper. Talk candidly with the Camp Director to obtain their perspective on your camper's adjustment. For many children, camp is the first step toward independence and plays an important role in their growth and development. It is okay to encourage your camper to stay at camp. Our priority is the health and well-being of every camper.

Camp Care Kit

Surprise your camper with a Camp Care Kit given to them on their first day! The kit is loaded with fun items, including something to carry items around camp, something artsy, a water bottle, something for fun in the sun, and something plush to cuddle at camp. All the goodies are packed in a cute bag to carry it all. Order a Camp Care Kit here.

Living Units

All housing assignments are provided when your camper checks in at camp.

Cabin

Each log cabin features 4 log bunk beds, a ceiling fan with light, covered porch, an activity table, and separate counselor accommodations. The units are where campers spend “Cabin Time” at Camp Ehawee. During “Cabin Time” you can read a book, write a letter home, make friendship bracelets, and spend time chatting with your new friends. Indoor bathrooms with showers are available to campers.

Night Sky Lodge

Our youngest campers tend to stay in our lodge. It has all the creature comforts they are used to at home, with their bathrooms and showers in the building. The lodge has two large bunkrooms with an indoor bathroom and showers. There is also a common area for program activities.

Unit Houses

Each unit also has a Unit House which features an indoor activity area, running water, electricity, activity box and outdoor cooking necessities. You and your buddies can enjoy rainy-day camp activities and sing camp songs while crafting from the activity box. During cookouts, campers use the Unit House as a food preparation area and dish washing station.

Bathrooms

There is a bathroom facility within each unit with flushing toilets and six hand sinks. Campers shower indoors at the Pool House.

Buddies

Campers can request up to 3 buddies to share living space with by completing the request when entering information into your CampDoc profile. You can also request your troop to all stay in the same cabin together.

Their Safety is the Top Priority

All camp staff complete a 14-day training period that includes: Girl Scout Safety Activity Checkpoints, Girl Scout Safety Guidelines, American Camp Association (ACA) Standards, WI State Standards, emergency procedures, behavior management, homesickness, child abuse awareness, risk management, on-site and off-site trip procedures, fire building and extinguishing training, diversity training, and waterfront/pool safety. Additional training is required for staff working at the pool, archery, and leading trips. All staff are certified in a minimum of First Aid, CPR, and automated external defibrillators (AED). Camp Ehawee's Health Center is equipped with an AED, first aid supplies, and other emergency equipment.

Campers learn about camp emergency procedures within the first 24 hours of arrival. Campers learn about our severe weather procedures and where to go during an emergency. The camp has weather radios monitored by camp staff. Along with utilizing the weather radios to monitor the weather, local officials and Girl Scout office staff will contact camp in the event of approaching severe weather.

Visitors to camp are met by camp staff and escorted to the Camp Office where they are issued a visitor tag, and escorted by a staff member around camp. ALL staff members have a 2-way radio for constant communication.

The camp staff will contact parents about their camper in the event of:

- Significant or extensive homesickness that affects the camper's ability to enjoy the camp experience.
- Illness or injury that requires care from a doctor or hospital.

Outdoor Safety

Here are helpful hints on how you can help protect your camper while they are living and playing in the woods:

- Encourage body cover (long pants, shirts, socks, hats) as appropriate for the weather and activities.
- Apply an insect repellent containing 30 percent or more DEET (recommended for children) and up to 50 percent DEET (for adults). Reapply per package directions throughout the duration of the activity. We recommend spraying the repellent on clothing rather than skin when feasible.

Lyme Disease & West Nile Virus

In Wisconsin, Minnesota, and the eastern coastal states, these bacterial diseases is transmitted to people and animals by the bite of the deer (bear) tick (Ixodes dammini).

West Nile Virus is now in most of the United States. The most frequent way people become infected is through the bite of an infected mosquito.

For additional information about Lyme Disease and West Nile Virus, contact your local Public Health Agency or:

- Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources: 1.888.936.7463 or www.dnr.state.wi.us
- Wisconsin Department of Health & Social Services: 608.266.1865 or <http://dhs.wi.gov>

Part of what campers are learning at camp is to take personal responsibility for themselves and learn independence. While we ask that campers take personal responsibility to use insect repellent, sunscreen, and wear appropriate clothing, camp staff will remind them frequently to use both insect repellent and sunscreen, and to make sure they are wearing clothing appropriate to the activity they are participating in.

If your camper needs additional assistance at camp, they will be helped by the Health Supervisor.

Head Lice

Since head lice are highly contagious, please perform daily checks on your camper prior to their departure date. It can be very disappointing for campers if head lice are identified during check-in. If a camper is found to have nits or lice, they will not be permitted at camp. To avoid this, ensure checks are done leading up to check-in day, allowing time for treatment if necessary. Visit www.headlice.org for more resources.

At Badgerland Camps, we follow the National Pediculosis Association (NPA) guidelines. If a camper is found with lice, they will not be allowed at camp until treatment is completed and no lice are found. Once clear, they may rejoin.

Regarding refunds, we offer:

- The option for the camper to join another week of camp.
- Reimbursement for time missed from the camp session, with full refunds available

Swimming & Canoeing

All campers are required to complete a swim check before participating in swimming/boating activities.

Swim Check

The swim check is designed to help the waterfront staff determine a camper's swimming ability and where they may safely swim in the swimming area. Each camper is required to demonstrate their level of comfort in the water and swimming skills. Depending upon the results of the swim check, campers are allowed to swim in both the shallow and the deep water or swim in the shallow area only.

Canoe Tip Check

Campers who wish to use canoes or kayaks during boating time at the slough must participate in a tip test for the selected watercraft. The purpose of the tip check is to teach campers what to do in case they capsize. In the canoe tip check, two campers wearing life jackets, accompanied by a staff person and supervised by a lifeguard, tip their canoe. Campers then learn to turn the canoe back over, climb back in, and paddle to shore. Completion of the tip check enables a camper to use the canoes as a part of their camp activities.

Contacting Your Camper While They're at Camp

Letters

Cheerful letters from home can make a camper's day. The first two days are the greatest adjustment days. Mail letters before your camper arrives or drop them into our camper mailbox during check-in.

Mail letters to:

<Camper's Name> - Program Name & Date – Camp Ehawee – N9581 Wild Road – Mindoro, WI 54644

Campers are encouraged to write home during “cabin time”. Consider sending pre-addressed and stamped envelopes to make mailing easier. Our counselors can also help campers address their letters.

Topics to write about:

- How much fun you know your camper is having.
- Cheery, funny things that have happened.
- Let them know you love them, but stress the great experience they are having and how they can teach you some of the things they learned at camp.

Topics to avoid:

- Sad or upsetting news about family, friends or pets.
- How terribly you miss your camper or statements that may bring on homesickness or a feeling of being left out.
- Family events that just weren't the same without them.
- Please do not ask your camper to call you.
- Do not send candy, gum or food as it attracts animals/bugs in the units.

Email

This summer Camp Ehawee has no-cost one-way email service for families of resident campers. Send camper email to CampEhawee@gsbadgerland.org by 11:00am on the day you wish your camper to receive the email. Provide your camper's name and program in the subject line. Note: Please do not use this email for communication with the camp staff.

---

Emergencies and Crisis Communication

In the event of an emergency and/or outside of business hours, contact the following individuals until you are able to speak with someone:

- 608.237.1159 – Colleen McGuire, Assistant Camp Director
- 608.237.1142 – Nick Harnish, Director of Education
- 608.630.3281 – Christy Gibbs, CMO
- 260.804.0587 – Lisa Smith, CEO

Guardian Communications

Before, during, and after camp we will put additional and reminder information out through direct emails, www.gsbadgerland.org, and social media channels. Make sure that you have 'opted in' for emails in your My GS account at gsbadgerland.org. This will ensure that you don't miss any email reminders that we distribute.

Information before camp and during their camp will be shared on our safe and private information site called Rallyhood. You will receive an invitation to join your camper's Rally to follow along with other camper families through the week.

Cell Phones and Smart Watches

Cell phones are not permitted at camp. Please make sure your camper does not bring any device like this to camp. As a guardian, you are always welcome to call or email the camp office at any time and inquire about how your camper's time at camp is going. Smart Watches are permitted as long as campers are using the device ONLY as a watch. Games, texting, and phone calls from Smart Watches are not permitted, and camp staff will hold onto the device in a locked location until pick-up that day.

Laundry

Campers attending for one week or less do not have access to laundry facilities except for emergencies. A washer and dryer are on-site in the event a camper's clothing or bedding need to be cleaned or dried. For most drying needs, clotheslines in the sleeping units are sufficient.

Lost and Found

Lost or forgotten items may be picked up at the Girl Scout Leadership Center in Madison through August 31. After August 31, they will be donated and no longer available. Please label belongings clearly and do not send items that are expensive or of great personal value.

Visiting Camp

Guardians may not visit camp once their camper's program has begun. One of the goals of camp is to help Girl Scouts become more self-confident and independent. Guardians are welcome to tour camp with your camper upon check-out.

Camper Code of Conduct

Camper behavior is important to camper safety. All campers must abide by our camper Code of Conduct found on CampDoc. It is up to you, as the parent/guardian, to go through this information and make sure your camper understands. You, as the parent/guardian, are also responsible for understanding the consequences and responsibilities if your camper does not abide by the agreement. As a result of a violation of this agreement, a camper will be asked to leave camp at the parents' responsibility and expense.
