

The final in a 9 email series of helpful tips for new Badgerland troop leaders.

NEW TROOP LEADER

Week 9

WELCOME NEW TROOP LEADER!

This is the final email in the #TrainingTuesday series! Thanks for following along, we hope you've found this to be a helpful resource as you embark on your new Girl Scout adventure.

The Outdoors

At Girl Scouts, we work to build our members' outdoor skills and inspire them to care for the environment in the process. Girl Scouts can take these adventures with their troop or with their family, and will learn to explore more as they get comfortable in the outdoors.

Check out our Outdoor Progression Training, which includes a series of videos to help you and your Girl Scouts become comfortable in the outdoors.

Badgerland has two camp properties where girls can explore the outdoors, take adventures, and learn to lead in a safe place. You can make a reservation to use our leadership centers and other properties for meetings, events, and overnights. All reservations can be made through Checkfront.

While you're on Checkfront, take a look at the different badge kits that are available! We have a variety of badge-in-a-box kits that you can check out and use to help your troop earn specific badges. These are especially great resources for our newest leaders who are still learning the ropes!

When you're ready to start thinking beyond the outdoors, we also have progression charts for entrepreneurship and travel. All can be found on gsLearn.

We are here to answer your questions!
