

Annual Meeting

Standing Rules

- All members of the corporation shall wear registration badges in evidence throughout the business meeting.
- All speakers shall state their name, their position in Girl Scouts of Wisconsin-Badgerland or affiliation.
- When presenting a motion, either to first or second the motion, each speaker shall declare their name.
- When speaking to a motion, each speaker shall declare if speaking in the affirmative or the negative and shall be limited to two minutes.
- A speaker cannot speak twice to the same motion until everyone else wishing to speak has done so.
- A non-member guest may be given the privilege of the floor by a majority vote of those eligible to vote.
- Debate on each motion shall be limited to ten minutes inclusive of points of information, clarification, etc.
- There shall be a timekeeper during the business sessions.
- The Board Chair is empowered to make changes to the business agenda and schedule, to expedite the business of the Girl Scouts of Wisconsin-Badgerland.
- All items of new business shall have been submitted to the Recording Secretary, in writing, prior to the beginning of the Business Sessions. The Presiding Chair shall remind the assembly of this requirement.
- All personal communication devices such as cell phones and tablets shall be turned off or programmed to silent mode during the business session and presentations.
- The most current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall be the parliamentary authority for the conduct of business.